Oliver Twist will introduce children to the 19th Century London experienced by the poor : the film recreates the horror of Victorian slum life. (programme d'Histoire en 4^e et 1^e)

The story also provides an example of spousal abuse (Nancy is beaten and then killed when she tries to protect Oliver).

Themes that can be studied : the triumph of good over evil, the lures of temptation, the terrors of fear.

EXTRAITS DU LIVRE

- p. 12-13 from ‘the evening arrived’ to ‘than I am that that boy will come to be hung’
- p. 95-97 from ‘the narrow streets’ to ‘a deadly white’

Both extract the conditions of life at that time. The first one shows how orphans were treated in a workhouse and could lead to a comparison between nineteenth century’s children and today’s children.

The second extract shows the world of thieves, poverty and how women from a low social class were considered. It also describes nineteenth century London and can be opposed to the description of a rich scenery outside London where Oliver is being taken care of by Mrs Maylie : p. 204 from ‘and when Sunday came’ to ‘himself’.
